2017 Regina Red Sox Sports Dinner & Auction

Cito Gaston is coming to Regina

Saturday, April 29, 2017 at the Turvey Centre

The Regina Red Sox organization invites you to the 2017 Regina Red Sox Sports Dinner & Auction presented by The Water Warehouse.

Our 2017 Speaker, sponsored by 9 agents from Century 21 Dome Realty Inc is Cito (Clarence Edward) Gaston. Signed by the Milwaukee Braves in 1964, Cito would play 11 seasons in the majors. His finest campaign came with the San Diego Padres in 1970, when he hit .318 with 29 home runs and 93 RBIs, earning himself an all-star nod and team MVP award.

In 1981, Gaston joined the Braves as a minor league hitting instructor, before following manager Bobby Cox, to Toronto to become the Blue Jays' first fulltime batting instructor the next year. He became the clubs team manager in 1989 and went on to lead the Jays to 4 division titles and 2 World Series Championships. In 2000 to 2008 he served other roles with the team until he was rehired as the Blue Jays field manager in June 2008.

The Regina Red Sox is a not for profit, community organization. This yearly event is necessary to sustain the team and continue its-on-field success. We hope that you will consider supporting the team and our players' baseball dreams by:

- Being a Platinum, Gold, Silver or Bronze level sponsor- Details are on the next page.
- Buying individual dinner tickets ($90.00)
- Donate a silent or live auction item – All auction sponsors will be mentioned in the program. (Deadline for program information is April 17, 2017)

This event was sold out last year, so purchase your tickets early to avoid missing Cito Gaston share the highlights of his amazing career.

The Regina Red Sox Board of Directors thank you for your continued support. We look forward to seeing you at the dinner and the ballpark.
